Dear Folks,

I can see I'm going to study here, for every day I get a new book, and the assignments seem to get longer and longer. But I don't mind as long as there are a couple of girls sitting around to look at during classes.

A couple of us guys get together and study every night — well, almost every night. This is really getting education the hard way, digging it out.

I wrote Dot yesterday. Sure do hope she can make it up for the big game with Mississippi College.

There's a history quiz coming up in the morning, so I'd better hit these books. Tell everybody "hi" for me.

Loads of love,
Jim.

Our Religious Services . .

October 12, 1948

Dear Mom and Dad,

Our religious services are a big part of this campus, I've found out. Devotionals are a regular part of the chapel programs, and vespers are held every night after supper.

The two "Y's" and the Ministerial League are really active, but they are only a few of the many religious organizations here. Each denomination is represented by a club, and the presidents of them are members of the Christian Council. Religious Emphasis Week is coming up soon; its purpose is the promotion of a Christian Atmosphere on the campus.

Everybody has heard of the Singers — you remember when they came home on tour last year? They're going to sing the Messiah this Christmas and will go on a big tour in the spring.

I can really understand why you were so anxious for me to come to Millsaps.

Love to all,
Jim.

October 18, 1948

Dear mom and Dad,

My social life isn't going to be dull because I've met lots of cute girls already. I think I've mentioned Barbara before in a letter - anyway, since she's in Singers, too, we're together quite a bit. She's a K. D., and I'm a Pike, and between the two of us we have quite a time.

The Grill is the gathering place between classes. I'm thinking seriously of majoring in Grillology (I'm only kidding here, Dad.)

Parties haven't really started to roll yet, but the S.E.A. Social Calendar has one on schedule for every weekend. Of course, we have our occasional stag sessions, but don't get me wrong - I wouldn't want to make a habit of them.

Love,

Jim.

P.S. Don't know how it happened, but I'm broke. Could you please send me a little money?

DEDICATED TO

DR. BENJAMIN ERNEST MITCHELL

It is with sincere gratitude that we dedicate this BOBASHELA to Dr. Benjamin Ernest Mitchell, professor of mathematics. Dr. Mitchell has given 35 years of service to making ours a Greater Millsaps, coming to the college in 1914. He received his A.B. from Scarritt-Morrisville College, his A.M. from Vanderbilt University, and his Ph.D. from Columbia University.

During his career at Millsaps Dr. Mitchell has become a familiar and beloved person to everyone. To many of us, both students and faculty, he has become a genuine friend. His qualities are such that one sentence seems to sum them up admirably -- he is a Christian gentleman.

So, for these things, as well as other intangibles, we respectfully dedicate this 1949 BOBASHELA to Dr. B. E. Mitchell.

October 29, 1948

Dear Family,

It really would be fine if you could come up to get me some of my profs, and I know you'd like them.

We have a swell faculty. I don't know them all yet, but they speak to me anyway. I like this idea of having faculty advisors 'cause I would have been ever more confused during registration. As it is, I think I've got a pretty good schedule.

Speaking of studying, I was thinking how much more I could get done if I had a car. I could get back and forth to Burton a lot quicker and have more time for the books. Don't you agree?

Your son,

Jim.

P.S. Maybe we could drop Barbara home Thanksgiving. She lives right on the way.

P.S., Jr., Is Dad still around?

M. L. SMITH

The P R E S I D E N T

Dr. Marion L. Smith: "Smiley" to everyone, is the perfect example of Millsaps spirit. Never too busy to have a friendly word with every student, his geniality and kindness have made a lasting impression on our hearts. His devotion to Millsaps is an inspiration for the entire student body.

WILLIAM E. REICKEN, Ph.D.
DEAN

A member of Phi Beta Kappa, Dr. Reicken has a full-time schedule as Dean of the college and biology instructor; and he serves equally well in both capacities. His alert manner and devotion to Millsaps make him a well-liked and respected dean.

DEAN REICKEN

DEAN STONE

MRS. MARY H. B. STONE, M.A.
DEAN OF WOMEN

As advisor for the co-ed students, Mrs. Stone is never too busy to give advice and assistance with characteristic calmness and understanding. Also a professor in the English Department, she is admired by students as a truly fine person.

Dear Mom and Dad,

I don't know why you're so worried about my hair, Mom. It's grown out a lot, already, though it's still a little cool in places.

Freshman Day, 1949, is really going to be my day - I can hardly wait. You would have fainted at me in my best purple pajamas parading around the campus this year.

Class elections are coming up soon, and the guys want to nominate me for vice-president. I guess eighteen years old isn't too soon for a pre-law student to crash politics - right?

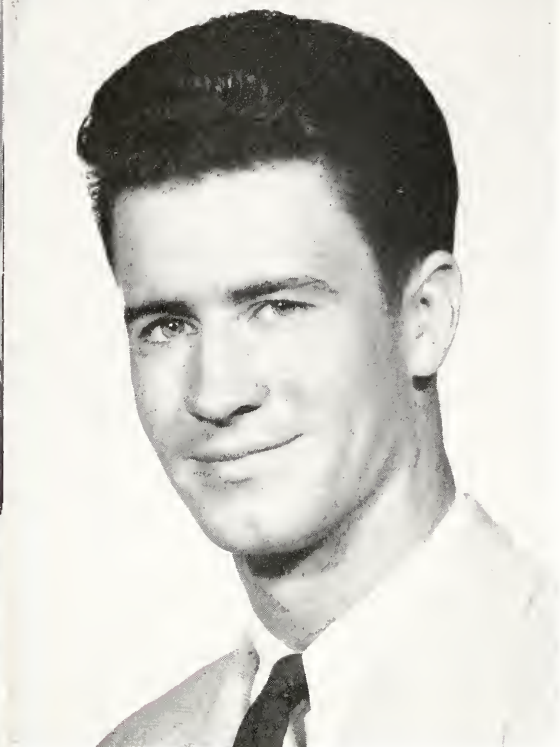

Oh gosh, it's getting late, and I'd better start working on that law practical. Got to make those grades.

Love,

Jim.

P.S. It has happened again - I'm broke. Could you help me out a little, Dad?

November 17, 1948

Dear Family,

The best thing that can happen to a boy and girl here is to be elected master major and miss mill-saps. It's really quite an honor to be chosen by the students.

We don't have anything like an "elite contest" — that's high school stuff. But we do elect four beauties and eight favorites for the annual. The sororities nominate the girls, and everybody gets to vote. Also, the faculty nominates various students for "who's who in American Colleges and Universities". Quite a collection of wheels we have.

I guess my mid-semester grades are home by now. Looks like my Spanish book and I are going to have to see more of each other, doesn't it?

Please let me know about Thanksgiving, so I can check with Barbara.

Love,
Jim.

Dear Family,

Certainly did enjoy my Thanks-giving visit. I'm glad you liked Barbara. I was wondering if I could ask her home for a few days during Christmas.

Those parties I wrote you of are in full swing now. This fraternity life is really the one for me. I'm just waiting for the day when I become one of the good brothers — Pi Kappa Alpha and Senora Cobb willing. Even though Millsaps is small, we have five frats, four sororities, and the women's independent group.

Thanks, Dad, for the check. It'll strictly help get this Christmas shopping underway. See you both in a few weeks.

Your son,
Jim.

P.S. Finally asked Barbara to the K.A. Black and white.

Under the guidance of chapter president Frank Brown, Theta Eta Zeta of Lambda Chi Alpha, has built its strength up to an all-time high. With the acquisition of a house, the Lambda Chi's really went into high gear. President Brown also served the student body as vice-president, numbering I. R. C. and O. D. K. among his other accomplishments. Don Key and the Goodsell brothers were stand-outs in the music department, and David Lightcap was elected Freshman King. Fast becoming famous for their campus-wide ball, the brothers also elected Betty McNeese as their sweetheart.

O.D.K. Lee led the Kappa Sigs through another full year. Brothers Roberts and May, the last of the "old guard" carried on in the Star and Crescent tradition. Motor Carr took the lead on the campus as S.E.B. president, stellar basketball forward, and Who's Who. Bill Jones racked up another presidency, this time that of the Junior Class. "Little Boll Weevil" made his appearance; and Brothers Morgan, and Clay took the ladies of their choice to the altar. The Sig float took first honors at Homecoming, and the brothers made big plans for a house face-lifting.

These exponents of Southern chivalry, led by Goodman, came through another year with much to show for it. Goodman, top man in I. R. C., was also on the rolls of Pi Kappa Delta, ODK, and the Economics Club. Goss was also a wheel—ODK, Alpha Psi, Business Manager of Bobashela, and Who's Who. Davis and Porter were married, and Brothers Cauthen, Jones, and Turner pinned. The Black and White brought out everybody on several campuses, as Brother Jones and his combo added to the general enjoyment. Kurtz, Beville, Neville, Davis, Clements, and Cates represented Alpha Mu in athletic circles.

Although not a Greek-letter organization the Vikings found its way into this section as one of the social groups for women.

The Vikings made quite a name for themselves this year under the leadership of their versatile president, Peggy Billings. Although intramural teams weren't divided by social organizations, the Viking girls were stars, the brightest being Jean Wynne, Peggy Billings, Jean Files, and Penny Hardy. Dot Evans represented the group in the national contest for the sweetheart of National Independent Student Association.

Yvonne McInturff was elected a favorite, and Ruth Stockton was tapped into Eta Sigma Phi.

Parties ranging from a White Magic Ball to a Country Cousin Get Together entertained the girls.

President Dossett placed as a beauty for the fourth consecutive year. To round out her activities, she was elected to I.R.C., Sigma Lambda, and Miss Millsaps. DeCelle was also elected to Sigma Lambda and I.R.C. Other beauties were Ragland, Corley, Price, and Kennedy. Chi Delta added a trophy to its collection for its original pep song composed last fall. Lynda and Tommy were married; and Corley, Ready, and Lancaster became fraternally tied. The house finally got new wallpaper and curtains. Kern and Patterson continued to lead cheers, and Lucy walked off the queenship of the Carnival Ball.

MIRIAM PROVOST	Secretary
CAROL HUTTO	Treasurer
PEGGY BONNER	Assistant Treasurer
FAY CONLEE	Editor
MARY ELIZABETH HOLLAND	Rush Chairman

Kappa Delta wrote off another year done up in best green-and-white tradition. Abernathy proved herself a top BWOC with a finger in everything, including the presidencies of Sigma Lambda and the Woman's Council and nomination to Who's Who. Swartout, Sanderson, and Pou rated on the beauty list, Abernathy and East walked away with class offices, and Hutto and Sanderson were tapped into Sigma Lambda. Tennant became Mrs. Wiggers early in the year. Walker and Swartout carried the colors in the dramatic field. Kappa Delta house suppers and parties continued to be known for their good food.

December 13, 1948

Dear Mom and Dad,

There's really never a dull moment around here with so many clubs and such for a joiner like me.

I've written you before about the religious organizations, and you'd be proud of my regular attendance at Westminster meetings. Of course, we have a lot of vocational honours, but there are all sorts of activities you can get into just by asking to take part.

Right now we're winding up most of the business for this semester since exams will be pretty soon after we get back. This will be my first real visit home, so I've written Bill and a couple of the guys to see what we can plan.

Looks like I'd better close now as "Y" meeting can't go on without me.

Your son,
Jim.

STUDENT EXECUTIVE BOARD

IRONS OUT CAMPUS PROBLEMS

OFFICERS

GORDON CARR President
FRANK BROWN Vice-President
DORRIS LIMING Secretary-Treasurer

Composed of the heads of various representative organizations, the Student Executive Board does everything from setting up the yearly social calendar to amending the Constitution—of the Millsaps student body, of course. This year under Carr and Company has been another one to add to S. E. B.'s long list of achievements.

THE WOMAN'S COUNCIL

INTERESTED IN FEMININE PROBLEMS

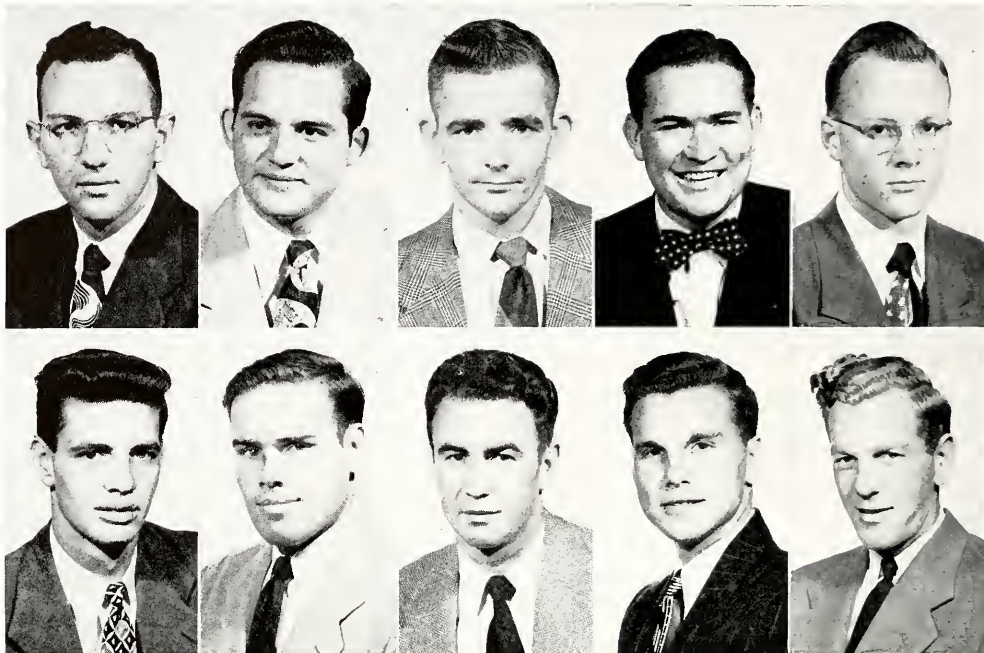

OFFICERS

PATSY ABERNATHY President
JOYCE WILLIAMS Vice-President
LINDA McCLUNEY Secretary

This organization, made up of representatives from the social groups, the Y. W. C. A. and the Majorette Club, considers rules and regulations for the co-eds. It encourages good campus citizenship and serves as liaison between faculty and women students.

TOP ROW: Abernathy, East, Jones, Lancaster . . . BOTTOM ROW: Lee, Liming, McCluney, Provost, Williams.

CAMPUS LEADERS AMONG MEN

OFFICERS

GEORGE MADDOX	President
LANCE GOSS	Vice-President
DR. ROSS MOORE	Secretary-Treasurer
PROF. FERGUSON, DR. SMITH, DR. WHARTON	Faculty Members

Recognition by Omicron Delta Kappa is one of the highest honors that can come to a Millsaps man. Its standards are high, requiring outstanding scholarship and leadership ability. The gold key of ODK is the symbol of one of the top honoraries on the campus.

SIGMA LAMBDA

O. D. K. HAS NOTHING ON THEM

OFFICERS

PATSY ABERNATHY President
DORRIS LIMING Vice-President
ELIZABETH ANN LAMPTON Secretary-Treasurer
CAROL HUTTO Historian
MRS. COBB, MRS. STONE, MRS. GOODMAN Faculty Advisors

Sigma Lambda membership means executive ability in activities, as well as excellent scholarship. It is given to the most outstanding co-eds on the campus. The hope of the organization this year has been that of buying a silver tea service for the college, and to help finance it they presented their annual Varsity Show.

THEY TREAD THE BOARDS

OFFICERS

GENE RUSSELL President
 SAM NEWELL Vice-President
 LANCE GOSS Secretary-Treasurer
 DR. WHITE, MR. HARDIN, MISS MOOREHEAD . . . Faculty Advisors

No one has to speak for Alpha Pi of Alpha Psi Omega; their dramatic productions speak for themselves. "Out of the Frying Pan" is a good example of what this group can accomplish in discovering and directing dramatic talent. Members of Alpha Psi, not content to limit their activities, also perform in Little Theatre plays and other productions around the campus.

OFFICERS

HARRY CUNNINGHAM President
 DEWEY BUCKLEY Vice-President
 DOT DOTY Secretary-Treasurer
 MRS. COBB, MISS CRAIG, DR. HAMILTON, MR. HARDIN,
 MRS. GOODMAN, MRS. COULETT Faculty Advisors

Eta Sigma Phi is the honorary which encourages high scholarship among students of the classical languages. Their programs are on related topics, and their annual banquet brings the members out in full regalia to partake of roasted pig in the manner of the ancients.

ECONOMICS CLUB

MILLSAPS' WALL STREET

OFFICERS

RANDLE BROWN President

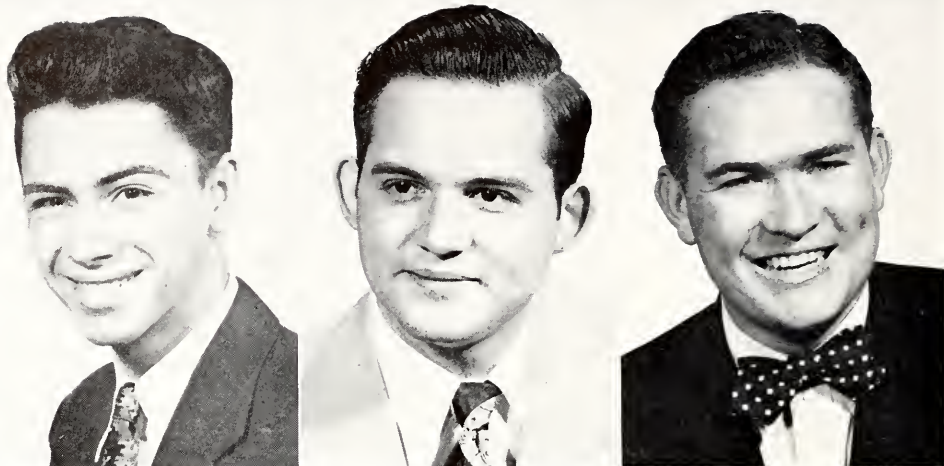

TOM KEMP Vice-President

JOHN GARRARD Secretary-Treasurer

As the name implies, this organization is formed by the "brain-trust" of the Economics Department. Their long harangues over the national budget and such matters would leave a less energetic group exhausted.

OFFICERS

PHILLIP MURPHY Secretary

DR. WHITE, PROF. HARDIN, PROF. SANDERS . . . Faculty Advisors

Kit Kat, men's literary honorary, was re-activated at the end of last year. It encourages writing ability among its members, providing a serious atmosphere for criticism and discussion. It seems to be preserving its reputation of being one of the most exclusive groups on the campus.

CHI DELTA

WOMEN WRITERS OF TOMORROW

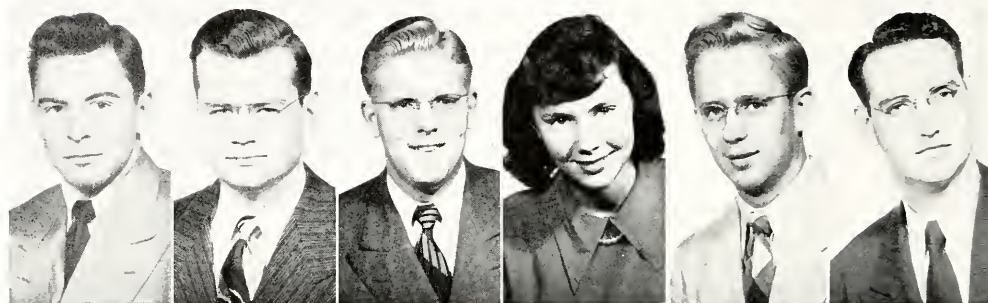

OFFICERS

CRIS HALL	President
CORNELIA DE CELLE	Vice-President
ERNESTINE CRISLER	Secretary-Treasurer
FRANCES JOHNSON	Reporter
MRS. GOODMAN, MRS. STONE, MISS MOREHEAD . . .	Faculty Advisors

A local, women's honorary, Chi Delta rewards excellence in literature and creative writing among the co-eds. Its meetings are devoted to reading and discussion of original selections.

TOP ROW: Arbuckle, Crisler, Conlee, Cresswell . . . BOTTOM ROW: DeCelle, Gregory, Hall, Johnson, Smith.

MEN AND WOMEN OF MEDICINE

OFFICERS

DENZEL PRINCE	President
RICHARD NAEF	Vice-President
MARY COWAN	Secretary
JOHN WOFFORD	Treasurer
PATTI PRATHER	Historian
WEIR CONNER	Editor

This honorary is a national one for the recognition of students outstanding in pre-medical work. Their meetings are devoted to discussions on related subjects. Membership in Alpha Epsilon Delta is a real honor for a pre-med student at Millsaps.

THETA NU SIGMA

THEY GIVE THEIR ALL FOR SCIENCE

OFFICERS

JOE POWELL President
 KENNETH FARMER Vice-President
 PATTI PRATHER Secretary-Treasurer
 DR. PRICE, DR. PRIDY, PROF. GALLOWAY Faculty Members

Only recently re-activated at Millsaps. Theta Nu Sigma is an up-and-coming national honorary. It taps into its membership outstanding majors in the natural sciences. These Darwins and Pasteurs keep informed of the latest developments in their field.

OFFICERS

RANDLE BROWN	Senior Chairman
LANIER JONES	Junior Chairman
DOROTHY JEAN LIPHAM	Rebuttal Chairman
PROF. FERGUSON, DR. WALLACE, DR. WHARTON, MRS. WOODS, AND DR. ROBISON	Faculty Advisors

The members of the Debate Club argue long and loud for the glory of Millsaps in inter-collegiate meets and seem to like it. Preparation of briefs and related information requires real work, which these debaters always seem to put out.

PI KAPPA DELTA

THEY LIVE TO ARGUE

OFFICERS

BILL NABORS President

Although small, this organization has outstanding college leaders in its ranks. They are rewarded by a number of debating trips in the spring, for work which requires both brains and talent. With "talkers" such as Goodman and Hutto they turned in a good performance this year.

Homecoming

Here and There..

December 16, 1948

Dear Folks,

Just wanted to get off a note before the holidays. Barbara says the 28th will be fine.

I hated to see football season end. Although our sports aren't subsidized (sp?) we've got a team to be proud of. I like to feel that I've been an All-American Benchwarmer this season - my time will come someday.

The girls have really been giving the gym a workout with a new plan for intramural sports. Any girl who wants to play is assigned to a team.

The "M" Club and Majorette Club are the honoraries for the sports minded. They have a lot of influence around the campus.

I'm really looking forward to basketball - we've got sharp new uniforms. See you Saturday.

All the best,
Jim.

1948 Lettermen—Kneeling—Arthur Whatley, Henry Clements, Billy Winans, Oren Bailless, George Williams, Jess Wade, Otis Pigott, and Mike Engle; Standing—Lonnie Decell, R. C. Britt, Alden Davis, Dave McIntosh, George Maddox, Peyton Weems and Billy Mann.

Despite a two win, three loss ,one tie record, the Magnificent Majors of 1948 turned in a strong season for Coach Doby Bartling, with one of the defeats by a single point and the other two by one touchdown margins. Already graduation had taken its toll of the ex-G.I. studded squad that had rolled up nine wins against three defeats in the two previous seasons. Youngsters just up from high school were filling in the gaps, thus weakening the Major's reserve power and all three defeats came during the second half when the superior second string strength of their opponents had worn down the Millsaps old hands.

DAVE McINTOSH

LITTLE ALL-AMERICAN 1947-1948

Already a legendary gridiron figure at Millsaps, Dave McIntosh repeated in 1948 on his Little All-American laurels first gained in 1947. Fame first came to Dashing Dave in high school when his triple threat pyrotechnics sent the McComb Wildcats undefeated to a Big Eight championship and a post-season Toy Bowl victory in New Orleans. Mac rejected all lures to play big time football and enrolled as a ministerial student at Millsaps that at the time had no grid squad. Then came Coach Doby Bartling to Methodist Hill, fresh from piloting the Vanderbilt Commodores, and between them, they wrote glowing new pages in the Majors' football history.

The B A N D . .

ALDEN DAVIS—Small for a fullback at just 165 pounds . . . but packs plenty of wallop . . . an old hand in the Major bivouac, starting in 1944 with the Millsaps V-12 gridders . . . kicker, blocker and pass receiver in addition to fine running talents.

MIKE ENGLE—Big Mike . . . six-feet-four and 205 pounds . . . equally adept at tackle, though used primarily as an end . . . known particularly for his great defensive play in breaking up the opponent's interference.

ARTHUR WHATLEY — The Whale . . . Doby's other big end, with 215 pounds packed on a six-foot-four frame . . . a rugged defensive player . . . he, too, alternates occasionally at tackle . . . shows versatility as first string guard with the Majors' cage crew.

GEORGE MADDOX — a preacher and a tackle . . . not given to turning the other cheek to an opposing lineman . . . brawn and brains in complete accord here . . . for stocky Mr. Maddox, with a perfect 3.0 grade average, is Mr. A at Millsaps . . . graduation carries him off to the seminary, but his achievements shall linger long among the Majors.

RAY BELL—linebacker deluxe who plays short shift with enemy ball carriers . . . Old Man Bell had a field night at Choctawland, even while the Purple was losing, as he carried on his rough-and-tumble specialty . . . really a fine, friendly guy, off the gridiron . . . all around athletic great . . . top hitter among the Major baseball crew . . . and a standout pitcher.

JESS WADE—three times letterman end . . . speedy afoot, for downfield tackling and pass receiving . . . has a kicking talent, too, that finds expression in a punting role . . . known, too, as an excellent blocker.

LONNIE DECELL—Alonzo of Vicksburg just looks like a southpaw in his picture . . . in reality a right handed pass pitcher . . . and a good one . . . versatility characterizes Lonnie . . . big enough to handle defensive quarterbacking chores, he can run as blocking back off the single wing or be the man-up-under in the "T" . . . a very fine guy to have around.

BILLY MANN—Rooster . . . just five-foot-seven from his cleated shoes to his crewcut topped pate . . . but a key man in the Majors attack, either as a ball handler or blocking back . . . it's not the size, but the ability that counts . . . and Rooster is okay.

T A K E the

DOUG HAMMOND—prototype of the Major of the future . . . started off as a tackle his freshman year last season . . . shifted to center this time around and caught on quickly . . . too much age and experience ahead of him these first two years . . . but the promise he shows now bodes naught but evil for future opponents in seasons to come.

GEORGE WILLIAMS—a family man with two little 'uns . . . hefty George shows little baby sitting kindness towards the enemy . . . chunky Mr. Williams has already lettered once, and still has a season left . . . with graduation taking so many of the Majors away, his beefy five-feet-nine, two hundred pounds plus will be mighty welcome another year.

HENRY CLEMENTS—"local boy makes good" describes Clements and his Millsaps grid career . . . a native Jacksonian, Henry has made his way in distinguished fashion with the Majors fine corps of ends . . . with a particularly likeable characteristic known as glue-fingered pass catching . . . had not a penalty nullified the play, his snagging a McIntosh aerial in the Sewanee end zone would have added another triumph to the Majors season record.

JOHN JABOUR—Johnny Jabo, the People's Choice . . . besides holding forth among the best of the Millsaps linemen, Jabo rates among the best liked personages on the campus . . . 220 pounds of runaway locomotive on offense . . . a non-budding concrete chunk on defense . . . three times a letterman with the Majors, and still a year of eligibility left.

E. B. STRAIN—E. B. looks every bit as wide as he is tall when tricked out in full war regalia . . . so squatly the opposition might overlook him at first glance, his presence is quickly established by a vicious tackle or block seemingly coming from nowhere . . . made a fine name for himself in his first year with the Purple, and Coach Bartling looks cheerfully to next year when the little man will be back again for further duties.

ED BELL—Ding Dong . . . far famed as a Major basketeer . . . and as Mississippi's best young tennis player . . . Ding makes his mark in football, too, as a running specialist . . . at his best on punt return with a tricky change of pace style . . . elusive with a darting, quick turning way of running when able to shake loose . . . but a savage driver when finally cornered.

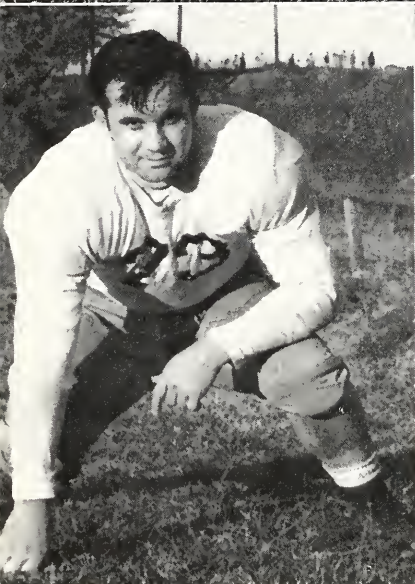

OTIS PIGOTT—Deadeye's fame, along with McIntosh, Maddox and others is firmly established on Methodist Hill . . . Pigott is by far the greatest of the all-around muscle men at Millsaps . . . a first stringer in all sports . . . small for a football player, particularly an end, Otis makes up the difference in speed and terrific competitive spirit . . . his style of play brings a multitude of injuries to Pigott, but his unflagging spirit carries on despite the weaknesses of the flesh.

HECTOR HOWARD—husky Hector never played any high school football . . . a handicap that held him back when he decided to have a crack at the Purple's varsity . . . but steady work in learning a lineman's duties have brought his quick development as a standout tackle, who has proven his value often for the Majors.

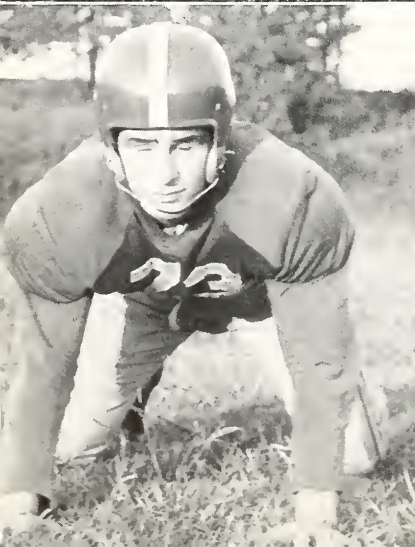

BAILESS—Center

BRITT—Halfback

WINANS—Guard

RAMSEY—Guard

for MILLSAPS

JOHN CHRISTMAS—when graduation took away the Majors second squad Little All-American Center John Christmas, sophomore "Cattfish" Bailess stepped into the breach like he owned it . . . and he did . . . Bailess was nothing less than brilliant in his first season as a starter, both on offense and as a rugged linebacker, teaming with Ray Bell . . . having so capable a youngster at hand kept the loss of Christmas from ever being too seriously felt.

R. C. BRITT—an All-Big Eight great when Coach Doby was helping turn out championship squads at Meridian High, Britt has been a Godsend to the Majors who have benefited much from his extensive experience . . . played freshman ball at Ole Miss in 1941 in a dream backfield of Charlie Conerly, Doug Kenna, Buddy Bowen and Britt . . . R. C. masterminded the Major attack from his wingback slot . . . as well as proving a sturdy defensive halfback.

BILLY WINANS—The Canton Crusher . . . a one-man gang on the right side of the Major line . . . for three years he has been a mainstay in making the Millsaps line the dangerous unit that it has proven to be for a lengthy list of opponents . . . little sorrow is evidenced among opponents that have been on the receiving end of his bone shattering tackles and blocks on hearing Billy is due to leave the Majors.

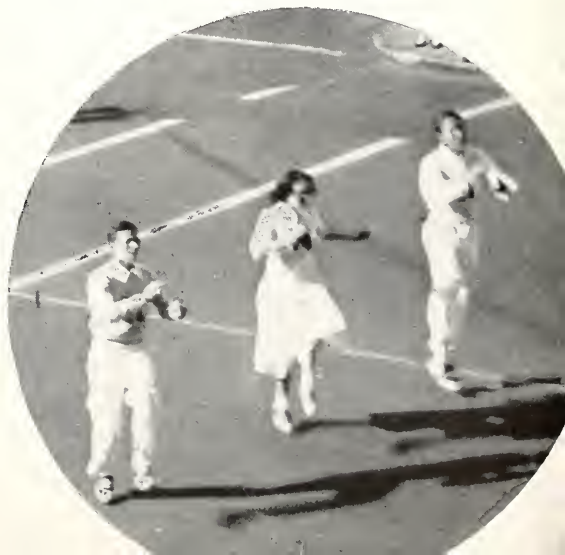

CHARLES RAMSEY—just in this season from the Hinds Junior College Eagles, Charlie quickly established himself as a most capable guard, even though the Majors were blessed with much talent at that line spot . . . the greatest regret is that Ramsey will not be with the Purple for, say, about three more seasons.

CHEERLEADERS—Evans and Goodsell . . .

BALL . . . SEASON

Bright light of the Major basketball world, Gordon (Motor) Carr, suffered from injuries of one sort or another all season long, and Millsaps' cage record suffered accordingly. The Majors nailed down five wins, one being a forfeit from Lambuth, against 15 defeats, while Carr averaged a mite better than 15 points a game in the 14 contests in which he took part. High point of the season was the single win over the Choctaws, 49-31, while the low spot came in the Dixie Conference tourney held at City Auditorium when Tampa's eventual champion Spartans rolled over the Majors, 81-55.

B A S E B A L L

Millsaps' 1949 diamond season had a fine beginning with a 12-10 win over the Stetson Hatters and ended nicely with a 5-2 plastering of hated Mississippi College, but in between things didn't go so well. After the Majors had taken two of their first three games, they ran headlong into an eight games losing streak. Two straight wins over the Merchant Marine Academy at Pass Christian righted the staggering fortunes of the Purple who then capped the season with the victory over the Chocs. Two 7-6 losses to the Choctaws were the toughest parts of a season that ended with five wins and nine defeats on the Majors' record. Top hurlers for Millsaps were Ed Wiles (2-2) and Ray Bell (1-1), while Bell led the hitters with a neat .385 average. First season stars with the Purple were Wiles, Shortstop George Kurts, Second Baseman Charlie Wiggers and Outfielder-Pitcher Bell, while veterans Billy Johnson, Ralph Hays and Otis Pigott closed out their careers with the Millsaps nine in standout fashion.

. . . G I R L S

Some of the objectives of the girls' intramural program at Millsaps are: to provide opportunity for fun and relaxation, to provide healthful exercise, to promote leisure education, to enrich social competence, and to develop group loyalties. A part of each person's leisure time should be devoted to wholesome physical activity. Intramurals promote skills in various games and sports intended for use in adult life. Intramurals establish group relationships in situations of vital interest to students. Proper organization and conduct of these activities facilitate the development of such desirable qualities as sportsmanship, cooperation, self-reliance, friendliness, etc.

S P O R T S

Devotion to a cause enables a person to put forth his best efforts, subjugating individual interests to the welfare of the group.

This year's participation in intramural sports has been organized on a different system from previous years. Formerly teams were composed of members of different social organizations; now, team members are comprised of all girls who are interested in sports and are eager to participate in them. Captains of the teams are chosen by the Majorette Club, local girls' athletic honorary. Team spirit, cooperation, and good sportsmanship have been enthusiastically displayed among the students.
